

LANDING IN KOREA

Estimated That 100,000 Japanese Troops Have Disembarked at Fusan and Chemulpo.

IMMEDIATE ADVANCE EXPECTED.

A Japanese Cruiser, Having Three Funnels, Lies Near Chemulpo Having Recently Sunk.

Several British, Norwegian and German Vessels Laden With Contraband Articles Have Succeeded in Reaching Vladivostok.

Vladivostok, Wednesday, March 2, via St. Petersburg.—According to information received here 40 Japanese transports, escorted by the entire naval fleet, have been energetically landing troops in Korea at Fusan and Chemulpo. It is estimated that fully 100,000 men have disembarked, and it is supposed that an immediate advance into Northern Korea is contemplated.

From the fact that the Japanese fleet is thus employed it is felt that no immediate attack upon Vladivostok or Port Arthur will be made.

The reported landing of 2,500 Japanese at Song Chin, Plaksin bay, on the east coast of Korea, has been confirmed.

There is a remarkable rumor abroad that a quantity of transport material, together with 90 tons of salt fish, have been discovered laid away in secret places in the neighborhood of Nikolaevsk. They were apparently intended for the use of Japanese forces toward the end of the summer.

The enrollment of volunteers is proceeding with enthusiasm at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—The following dispatch, dated March 3, has been received from Maj. Gen. Pflug, commanding the Russian forces at Port Arthur: "All is quiet at Port Arthur and Yin Kow. According to information given by eye witnesses a Japanese cruiser having three funnels lies near Chemulpo, between islands, having recently sunk there."

Tokio, March 5.—It is evident that several vessels laden with coal, provisions and other contraband articles have recently affected the passage of Tsugaru strait and succeeded in reaching Vladivostok. Their exact number and names are unknown, but it is said that they included British, Norwegian and German vessels. Two of them are said to have carried cargoes of Australian coal. Japan evidently refrained from making a special effort to prevent their passage, and it is not impossible that she calmly permitted the delivery of the contraband goods, calculating that they would prove useful to herself at a later stage of the campaign. The Vladivostok squadron continues inactive, though it has an ample supply of coal and the ships are in good condition. It has evidently been instructed by the Russian government to remain in close to Vladivostok batteries in preference to risking a fight in the open seas.

It is declared to be only a question of time before this squadron will receive the attention of the Japanese navy.

THE ASIATIC FLEET.

Annual Record Target Practice Has Been Completed.

Washington, March 5.—Adm. Evans telegraphs the navy department that the annual record target practice of the battleships and cruisers of the Asiatic fleet has been completed. The best single scores made were as follows: In 11 minutes and 20 seconds the best 13-inch gun of the Wisconsin made nine hits, the Oregon six hits and the Kentucky five hits. The best 5-inch gun of the Kentucky made 11 hits in two minutes.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

A Monument Will Be Erected in the Town of Boonesboro.

Frankfort, March 5.—Senate.—In the senate Friday Senator Burnam called up the house bill appropriating $2,500 for a monument at Boonesboro to commemorate the first settlement in Kentucky, and it passed by a vote of 30 to 2. Senators Cammack and J. F. Porter voting against it. Bills passed: Providing that in town elections in towns which are divided by the county line, all the voters in the town shall have the right to vote; to place the preferred stock of railroad companies on the same footing as stock of other companies, as far as the right of redemption is concerned; to punish the suppression of evidence by fixing a penalty for any one leaving the state to avoid testifying before a legislative committee or grand jury; requiring that the school fund shall be distributed to each county according to its pro-rata share.

House.—Bill passed: Providing for the appointment by the fiscal court of a truant officer in each first, second, third and fourth class city, to see that the compulsory education law is enforced. At the afternoon session of the house Mr. Williams' bill proposing to allow fourth class cities to levy a tax of 65 cents instead of 50 cents for school purposes, came up for passage, but was recommitted. Mr. Bourne's bill to change the constitution so as to disfranchise persons who have not paid their taxes, was defeated. The senate bill prohibiting the selling of liquor at wholesale in local option districts failed of passage because it did not receive 40 votes. There were 38 for it and 19 against.

KILLED FIVE INDIANS.

Charles C. Williamson Avenged the Death of His Companions.

Hodgenville, Ky., March 5.—Standing beside the dead bodies of four of his fellow-Kentuckians, victims of Indians, with a volley of bullets whizzing past his ears, Charles C. Williamson, it is declared, returned the fire of a band of red men who had attacked his party near El Reno, Okla., and sent five of them to the "Happy Hunting Ground" before he fell mortally wounded himself from a bullet through the head.

Williamson formerly lived in Hodgenville, but later resided in Cincinnati. A brief message to his brother-in-law, Judge C. R. Hagan, of this place, Friday, gives an account of the attack made upon the party of white men by a band of Indians, and describes the battle that followed as a desperate one in which 13 Indians were arrayed against eight white men.

The hostilities, it is said, were begun by the Indians, who fired into the camp of whites, taking them unawares. The motive of the attack was presumably robbery.

THE COMMISSION.

Adm. Walker, Chairman, Had a Conference With President in Reference to Canal Matters.

COMMISSION CALLED TOGETHER.

It is Expected That They Will Sail For the Isthmus on March 22 or Later.

The Surgeon General of the Navy Will Go to Panama to Make An Inspection of the Sanitary Condition There.

Washington, March 5.—Adm. Walker, chairman of the isthmian canal commission, had a conference Friday with the president relative to canal matters. At the conclusion of the conference Adm. Walker said that he had notified the members of the commission by telegraph to come to Washington at their earliest convenience. He said he expected the commission would sail for the isthmus on the 22d instant. If, however, all the members could not arrange their affairs so as to leave at that time, the commission would leave on the steamer sailing a week later.

It is said that the president adopted an unusual procedure in specifically naming in the list of nominations Adm. Walker as chairman of the commission; it is usual to leave the selection of the chairman to the committee itself. But there already were slight signs of friction, it is stated, which impelled the president to prevent any contest in the commission by naming the chairman himself.

R. Adm. Rixey, surgeon general of the navy, is going to Panama to make an inspection of the sanitary conditions on the isthmus. It is felt to be expedient that the surgeon general of the navy shall have an intimate knowledge of the situation there as the marines are to be left there for some time to guard the isthmus.

NAVAL TRAINING STATION.

The Question of a Site on the Great Lakes Discussed in the Senate.

Washington, March 5.—Senate.—Practically the entire time of the senate Friday was given to consideration of the question of the selection of a site for a naval training station on the great lakes. Most of the senators from states bordering on the lakes participated in the discussion. The controversy arose over an effort to secure an amendment to the committee amendment a provision authorizing the appointment of a new commission to select a site. This amendment was offered by Mr. Quarles, and its origin was due to the fact that a former commission had given preference to Lake Bluff, in Illinois. The principal speakers were Messrs. Quarles and Spooner, who presented the advantages of Racine, Wis.; Mr. Hopkins, who spoke for Lake Bluff, and Mr. Foraker, whose contentions were in the interest of Put-in Bay, O. The committee amendment was so modified as to make it apply to all the great lakes and not alone to Lake Michigan, but Mr. Quarles' amendment was not acted upon.

House.—The house had under consideration the Indian appropriation bill. During the general debate on the bill Mr. Martin (rep., S. D.), addressed the house on his resolution directing the secretary of commerce and labor to investigate the causes of the differences which exist between the cost of live and dressed beef. Mr. Stanley (dem., Ky.) made an urgent appeal for relief at the hands of congress for the tobacco growers and the toilers in the tobacco fields and complained that competition had been destroyed by combinations of capital. Mr. Robinson (dem., Ind.), in closing the general debate on the Indian bill, declared that a monopoly exists in the coal business in the Indian territory. The house confirmed the right of Mr. Sims (dem., Tenn.), to his seat. A republican had contested it.

MINERS' SCALE COMMITTEE.

It Adjourned and Will Report to the Joint Conference.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 5.—Before the sub-scale committee went into session Friday morning it was learned that neither miners nor operators were united among themselves on the subject of compromise.

It was said that at Thursday's meetings of the scale committee a part of both miners and operators suggested a compromise, but half of the operators and half of the miners would not agree with the others.

The compromise suggested was for a 7 or 8 per cent. reduction. For the first time, Friday morning both John Mitchell and Operator Robbins refused to say anything for publication on the situation. It seems neither one of them knew what the result would be.

After several hours' consideration of the proposition submitted by the operators of the sub-scale committee, the full scale committee adjourned Friday night to report to the joint conference which has been called to meet Saturday.

THE CRUISER DENVER.

Her Preliminary Trip Was Very Satisfactory.

Philadelphia, March 5.—After a preliminary trial trip off the Delaware breakwater, in which she attained an average speed greater than that required by her contract, the cruiser Denver returned to anchor off the yard of her builders, Neafie & Levys, late Friday. Satisfaction with the vessel's performance was expressed by the company's officers and the government's experts who were on the trip.

One of the officials of the company said the Denver attained a speed of 18.8 knots and an average of somewhat more than the 17 knots called for in the contract with the government.

The cruiser is now complete with the exception of painting, and when her official trial trip takes place the vessel will be ready to be turned over to the government.

SHOT AND KILLED HIMSELF.

President Larue, of the Corning State Savings Bank, Committed Suicide.

Sioux City, Ia., March 5.—Frank L. Larue, president of the Corning state savings bank, now in the hands of a receiver, shot and killed himself Friday afternoon. The savings bank closed its doors February 15 and its affairs were found to be badly tangled. The strain and worry of the weeks preceding the failure has affected Larue both physically and mentally, and he had been confined to the house for ten days or more. Friday afternoon he locked himself in the bath room and shot himself in the temple, death being instantaneous. He had long been one of the leading business men of Corning.

THEY DEMAND DAMAGES.

Suits Aggregating $300,000 Entered Against the Vindicator Mine Co.

Cripple Creek, Col., March 5.—Damage suits aggregating $300,000 growing out of the recent conspiracy cases against Sherman Parker, Thomas Foster and W. F. Davis, union leaders, were filed against F. J. Campbell, principal owner of the Vindicator mine, Friday. Campbell swore to the complaints against the men. After a trial lasting nearly two weeks the defendants in the conspiracy cases were acquitted. They now demand damages from Campbell.

Charles C. Whitney Succumbed to Heart Disease.

New York, March 5.—Charles Carroll Whitney, for 25 years secretary of the New York Life Insurance Co., died suddenly Friday of heart disease while on his way from his office to his home in Brooklyn. Mr. Whitney was 71 years old.

When the civil war broke out Mr. Whitney was in charge of the only telegraph office in Indianapolis. Later he worked under Secretary of the Treasury New, of President Lincoln's cabinet.

RURAL MAIL CARRIERS.

Measure Introduced to Permit Them to Engage in Other Business.

Washington, March 5.—Senator Alger introduced an amendment to the post office appropriation bill amending the provision inserted by the house prohibiting rural carriers from engaging in other business, so that carriers may carry articles authorized by law not authorized to be accepted for mailing; also to make contracts with publishers to distribute newspapers and periodicals upon which one rate of postage has been paid.

MORMON CHURCH.

If Principles of Plural Marriage Should Be Attacked It Would Defend It.

SENATOR SMOOT INVESTIGATION.

It Was Brought Out That All Presidents of the Mormon Church Had Been Polygamists.

President Smith Said That If the Law and Revelations of God Were in Conflict He Might Obey the Latter.

Washington, March 5.—Interest in the investigation before the senate committee on privileges and elections of the protests against Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, was unabated Friday. President Joseph M. Smith, who again was on the stand, testified that if the principle of plural marriage should be attacked it would be defended by the church. Considerable feeling was evidenced by President Smith against individuals, who, he said, had spied on the domestic and marital relations of the high officials of the Mormon church, and for that reason he had favored the passage of the Evans bill to prevent prosecutions for polygamous cohabitation, unless complaints were entered by husband or wife against the other. This bill was passed, but vetoed by the governor of Utah.

It was brought out that all of Mr. Smith's predecessors, as president of the Mormon church, had been polygamists and that the man chosen to succeed him has more than one wife.

Mr. Smith was asked which he would obey, the law of the land or revelations from God, if the two were in conflict. He said he might obey the revelation, though it was not compulsory. He added: "I should not like to be put in a position where I would have to desert my children—I could not do that."

Mr. Smith testified that the law making polygamous cohabitation a crime was passed by the Utah territorial legislature, which was overwhelmingly composed of Mormons, and that the constitutional convention was composed of a large majority of Mormons, so that the existing laws of the state legislating against polygamous cohabitation really were the result of the efforts of Mormons themselves.

Reference was made to the Evans bill, which passed the Utah senate March 8, 1901, and a few days later the house. This bill provided that no prosecutions for polygamous cohabitation should be instituted except on complaint of husband or wife. The bill was vetoed by Gov. H. M. Wells. Mr. Smith had said he was in favor of the bill and was asked why.

"Well, it was rather a personal matter with me. I was one of those unfortunates—or otherwise—men who had a numerous family and we were made the prey of a prying individual who was continuously spying into marital relations. I thought if such a law was passed it would be a boon to myself as well as a relief to those in a similar position and put an end to this continual 'spotting' of our private affairs."

Bringing the question up to the later periods, Senator Hear wanted to know what Mr. Smith would do if the revelations conflicted with the law. "Which would you obey?" he asked.

"With me, perhaps, the revelation would be uppermost," said Mr. Smith. "Can you say 'perhaps' to such a question?" interrupted Mr. Hoar, severely. Continuing, he asked, "Suppose you received a revelation commanding your people to do something which would conflict with the law of the land. Which would they have to obey?"

"Which ever they pleased," was the reply. "There is no compulsion." Then he read from one of the standards of authority: "Let no man break the law of the land, for he that keepeth the laws of God hath no need to break the law of the land."

RAISE MORE FRUIT.
The Supply of Apples is Not Equal to the Demand—Exports Increasing Rapidly.

[Cincinnati Post.]
Europe has discovered that about the finest thing that nature has produced so far is a big, rosy, juicy, fragrant, thin-skinned and hard-meated apple, grown in the United States and carefully picked and packed.

Since last fall nearly 3,000,000 barrels of American apples have crossed the ocean. That is nearly 1,000,000 barrels in excess of the previous year's shipments, and every week shows an addition of thousands of barrels to the figures. The Germans take kindly to Baldwins and Newtown pippins, and the English like anything that travels well and arrives sound.

Fruit is cheap in America. Oranges and bananas are no longer luxuries. Improved methods of packing and shipping have shown a result in decreased prices, and both have become a necessity, where they were formerly a luxury. But they have not displaced apples, and Northern apple, at that. We have the King, Northern Spy, Baldwin, Winter Sweet, Russet, Spitzenberg and a dozen more that, when properly grown and picked at the right time, are a greater joy to the taste than any orange that ever reaches this part of the country.

New York State still furnishes the bulk of the apples for export. That is because the farmers and apple growers of that State have devoted the time and money to apple culture and made it pay.

The average orchard in most States is a picture of neglect. Trees are planted and left to shift for themselves. Enough apples are raised for home consumption, but there is little idea of making money out of the crop.

And yet, oranges are cheaper than apples in the markets of every city today. The people want good apples, and can not get them. The demand in winter is always greater than the supply.

QUESTION OF PARTNERSHIP.
Opinion of Appellate Court in a Case Taken Up From Lewis County.

In affirming the case of Marx & Stix against Hardy, from Lewis County, the Court of Appeals says:
In a defense to an action by one on the ground that he was not a partner, reports of mercantile agents, or the general report in the neighborhood, are inadmissible to establish the existence of the partnership, it not being shown that such reports were founded upon any statements made by the alleged partner.

Second—Same—Where there was no evidence to show that the father knew his son was carrying on a store in his name, to hold him responsible as a partner would be to place him wholly in the power of designing persons who had it in mind to ruin him.

Third—Same—Where one was defending an action on the ground that he was not a partner, evidence of compromise was properly rejected where it did not appear that such party made any offer of compromise or knew that such offer was made.

It is stated that there are 6,000 cars of coal along the Chesapeake and Ohio road between Cincinnati and the West Virginia fields, consigned to points west of Cincinnati. These cars were started from the coal mines some time ago, but because of the heavy business of the connecting roads, the latter would not accept them, and thus forced the Chesapeake and Ohio to sidetrack them along its line. This has practically tied up the coal business on the C. and O., which is one of the leading coal roads with an entrance into Cincinnati.

Blondell & Fennessy's famous farce comedy, the "Katzenjammer Kids," now in its fifth successful season, and which is to appear at the opera house Monday, March 7th, hardly needs any extravagant introduction to theatre-goers, who have kept in touch with this sort of entertainment, so extensively has it been advertised by its ridiculous cartoons in various metropolitan journals of the East. It is said to be fairly bubbling over with pretty melodies of the latest compositions. The scenic and electrical effects throughout the entire three acts are of the latest and most improved design. About a year ago Mr. J. B. Prather bought forty acres, adjoining Georgetown, Ky. He paid $150 an acre for it, making a total of $6,000. Twenty-five acres of this he put in tobacco. The yield from this portion was 45,000 pounds, and he received for it 10 cents straight. This made a total of $4,500. He also sold off of the land $500 worth of timber. This brought the total up to a yield of $5,000 gross in one year on an investment of $6,000.

Mr. Philip Gollenstein delivered to Mr. T. L. Best this week 10,000 pounds of tobacco at 9 cents. It was raised on eight acres on Mr. John B. Holton's farm near Washington. Mr. H. L. As Well Out of the World
As Out of the Fashion!

After pursuing the policy of premium giving for several years we discarded it some time ago, but the custom has become so fixed in Maysville we find ourselves in odium for showing less generosity now than in the past, therefore a return to premium giving is announced to-day. Heretofore we have used a perforated ticket, but now we will issue as a quicker and easier way to tally sales. We are in no way connected with any trading stamp concern. We supply our own books, stamps and premiums. We only issue books for $25, but we have premiums not alone for that amount, but for $50, $75 and $100—the value of two, three and four books respectively. Small buyers who would be a long time filling several books are thus enabled to secure a handsome premium in a short time by filling one book, while others who shop for larger households can fill books rapidly and secure costlier premiums by having two, three or four redeemed. Stamps are only given with cash purchases, never in settlement of bills, nor for cash sales after the day they are made. Adherence to these rules will prevent misunderstanding in the future. Friday we will give $1 worth of stamps to any one who asks for them. The premiums are now on display. Ask to see them.

This is to certify that I bought a Deering Tongue Truck 8 ft. Binder in 1902, and wish to say that it is as far ahead of the old 6 and 7 ft. binders as day is brighter than night. In one day I cut 30 acres of heavy wheat, and without tiring my horses any more than cutting 15 acres with the old 6 ft. binder. It is perfectly free from neck weight or side draft and a pleasure to operate, elevating grain that the old small binders would choke on. A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stupifies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Mrs. E. Wycliff New York City writes: "ORRINE" cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of "ORRINE."

Mrs. W. L. D. Helena, Mont., writes: "I have waited one year before writing you of the permanent cure of my son. He took sanitarium treatment, as well as other advertised cures, but they all failed until we gave him 'ORRINE.' He is now fully restored to health and has no desire for drink."

Mrs. A. E. L. Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was born with a love of whiskey and drank it for thirty-two years. It finally brought me to the gutter, homeless and friendless. I was powerless to resist the craving and would steal and lie to get whiskey. Four boxes of 'ORRINE' cured me of all desire and I now have the smell of liquor."

Price $1 per box. Mailed in plain, sealed wrapper by Orrine Company, 317 14th St., Washington, D. C. Interlocking book—Treatment on Drunkenness, sealed free on request. Sold and recommended by THOS. J. CHENOWETH, Second and Sutton Sts., Maysville, Ky.

LUXURY—Indulgence or gratification of taste or sense without benefit other than that of possession.

NECESSITY—Indispensable; requisite to contentment; an object necessary to well being.

INVESTMENT—The purchase of an article from which an income is derived.

PLEASURE—Gratification; enjoyment.

To Which Class Do Pianos Belong?

Most certainly not to the first-class, for there is much benefit in a piano other than that of mere possession!

Therefore, Pianos Are Not a Luxury.

At first glance it would not seem that they belonged to the second class either, yet a piano is "A REQUISITE TO CONTENTMENT." A piano is also "AN OBJECT NECESSARY TO WELL BEING." Yes, on second thought we believe that Webster would say that a piano was a necessity, especially to a well ordered household.

Pianos Are Surely a Good Investment.

The child derives a musical education that provides a sure, steady income, no matter what adversity overtakes it.

Pianos Are Certainly a Pleasure.

A piano affords untold enjoyment, and the gratification of knowing that you have secured your loved ones against adversity is certainly worth some effort.

The necessity of providing for adverse circumstances demands the pleasure of an investment in a piano.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

Senator Fairbanks Will Accept If He Receives the Nomination.

Washington, March 5.—It was learned Friday night that Senator Fairbanks will not resist a movement to make him the vice presidential nominee of the republican party. If the convention nominates him he will accept. More than that, he will not attempt to discourage efforts looking to his nomination.

It is only fair to say that no explicit declaration by Senator Fairbanks to that effect has been made. The Indiana delegation in congress was convinced Friday that Senator Fairbanks had yielded to the solicitation of men high in the councils outside of Indiana to take second place on the national ticket.

Almost without exception his closest political friends in Indiana have advised him, in his own interest, against accepting the vice presidency. Influential republicans in the senate, such men as Spooner, Allison and Platt, have urged him to take it, on the ground that he would strengthen the republican ticket, especially in financial circles, and that his first duty is to his party rather than to his own political future.
